Bradford County Commissioners Office

WHEREAS, the safety and wellbeing of all citizens is the first priority and highest calling of Bradford County; and

WHEREAS, we are honored to stand by Bradford County's dedicated law enforcement professionals who, day after day, safeguard our families and communities, enforce the rule of law, and respond in times of crisis; and

WHEREAS, the mission of law enforcement requires the ability to act courageously and quickly; to make the right call in the face of imminent danger; to run toward danger instead of away; and to act with empathy and compassion as one serves others in their time of greatest need; and

WHEREAS, it is with immense gratitude that we set apart a day to reflect on and celebrate the selfless service and immeasurable contributions our law enforcement personnel make every day to ensure every citizen is safe in their home, workplace, and community; and

WHEREAS, we stand by our everyday heroes, including Bradford County's local Police forces, the Pennsylvania State Troopers, Bradford County's Sheriff's Department, Probation and Parole officers and Correctional Officers, and lend our wholehearted support to them as they continue to give of themselves for the benefit of all.

NOW THEREFORE, We the Bradford County Commissioners do hereby declare January 9, 2021 as Law Enforcement Appreciate Day in Bradford County.
